"TEMPEST IN A TEAPOT"
OVER MRS. HEARST'S NAME

Mrs. Philip M. Lydig So Disposes of Agitation in Connection With Library Canteen.

Mrs. Philip M. Lydig, Chairman of the social welfare committee of the Mayor's Committee of Women on National Defense, characterized to-day as a "tempest in a teapot" the reported agitation over the presence of Mrs. William Randolph Hearst's name on the sign before the canteen at 40th Street and Fifth Avenue. Addressing the committee, she said:

"You all know the history of the canteen in Liberty Park. It is the first open air canteen for soldiers and sailors. The idea originated with Mrs. Hearst, our Chairman, and she has given it generous support.

"To stand by our Chairman is only human justice, when we consider that to our Chairman the canteen owes its existence. The canteen idea was her own creation; she has given liberally and generously and has at all times contributed unselfishly her personal effort as well as substantial financial assistance, and under the circumstances a vote of thanks and confidence in our Chairman, Mrs. William Randolph Hearst, is now in order." The vote of thanks was given.

Mrs. William Randolph Hearst appeared before the Grand Jury to-day to testify in her complaint charging criminal libel against the New York Times and the Tribune.

KAHN SUCCEEDS IN SPAIN.

Closer Economic Contact to Be Established.

MADRID, June 19.—As the result of interviews between Otto H. Kahn, the New York banker, and Premier Masera and other Ministers and public men of Spain the financial interests of America and Spain will establish permanent relations making for closer economic contact between the two countries, according to Mr. Kahn. King Alfonso received Mr. Kahn in a long audience to-day.

EXPORT AND IMPORT
FREIGHT BOOST DROPPED

Railroad Administration Finds Proposed Increases Are Discriminatory.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Cancellation of the recently proposed export and import freight rates which were embodied in the general freight increase was announced to-day by the Railroad Administration. These rates, which were to become effective June 26, were found to be discriminatory, particularly with reference to export and import between the United States and the Orient.

The Railroad Administration announced a further consolidation of ticket offices and the approximate dates of their opening. They include: Philadelphia, June 24; Boston, July 10; Newark, June 19, and these new offices for Greater New York, No. 21 West 33d Street, July 5; No. 64 Broadway, July 10, and No. 114 West 42d Street, July 10.

Renewal of Britain-U. S. Arbitration Pact Approved.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Renewal for five years of the General Arbitration Treaty between the United States and Great Britain was approved to-day by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

NEW EXPRESS MONOPOLY
MUST END AFTER WAR

Contract Signed by Representatives of Companies and Railroad Administration.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The express monopoly created under Government auspices must be dissolved after the war emergency is passed, under provisions of the contract signed today by representatives of the express companies and the Railroad Administration. This provision, inserted on demand of Attorney General Gregory, will require reestablishment of the Adams, American, Wells Fargo and Southern Companies as separate operating and competing units when peace is restored, unless anti-trust laws are amended by that time.

It is expected the Western, Great Northern and Northern Express Companies will be included in the new operating company before the combination becomes effective July 1.

Head of British Mission Warmly Greeted by Chileans.

SANTIAGO, Chile, June 19.—Sir Maurice de Hussen, who is visiting South American nations at the head of a British mission, arrived here last night at 7 o'clock. There were scenes of enthusiasm at the station and throughout the city.
